

Thank you for Coming to Church.

Because of the increasing number of parishioners attending service, we will continue with our regular schedule of four Divine Liturgies. We wish to thank everyone for adhering to the rules and instructions of our volunteers, to whom we are most thankful. We will continue live streaming the Divine Liturgies on Sundays, for Ukrainian 8:30 am and 10:00 for English. Mask must be worn and the church is sanitized after each service. Week day services will continue at 8:30 am. Christenings, Weddings and Funerals are permitted under the same restrictions. Confessions are heard on Saturday from 4:00-5:00 pm. Дякуємо, що приходите до церкви. Через збільшення кількості парафіян на богослужіннях продовжуємо наш звичайний графік 4-ох недільних Божественних Літургій. Хочемо подякувати всім за дотримання правил та вказівок наших волонтерів, яким ми найбільше вдячні. Щонеділі пряма трансляція Божественної Літургії: 8:30 ранку укр. мовою та 10:00 ранку англ. мовою. Пригадуємо, що потрібно одягати маску. Щоразу після кожного богослужіння проводиться дезінфікування храму. Протягом тижня щодня служимо Св. Літургію 8:30 ранку. Хрещення, вінчання та похорони - дозволено з деякими застереженнями. Сповідь щосуботи з 4:00-5:00 по пол.

You are my sunshine. Like any good mother, Karen found out that another baby was on the way, she did what she could to help her 3 year old son, Michael, prepare for a new sibling. They found out that the new baby is going to be a girl, and day after day, night after night, Michael sings to his sister in Mommy's tummy. The pregnancy progressed normally for Karen, an active member of the church. Then the labor pains come. But complications arise during delivery. Hours of labor. Would a C-section be required Finally, Michael's little sister is born. But she is in serious condition. With sirens howling in the night, the ambulance rushes the infant to the neonatal intensive care unit at Hospital. The days inch by; the little girl gets worse. The pediatric specialist tells the parents, "There is very little hope. Be prepared for the worst." Karen and her husband contact a local cemetery about a burial plot. They have fixed up a special room in their home for the new baby and now they plan a funeral. Michael keeps begging his parents to let him see his sister. "I want to sing to her" he says. Week two in intensive care. It looks if a funeral will come before the week is over. Michael keeps nagging about singing to his sister but kids are never allowed in Intensive Care. But Karen makes up her mind. She will take Michael whether they like it or not. If he doesn't see his sister now, he may never see her alive. She dresses him in an oversized scrub suit and marches him into ICU. He looks like a walking laundry basket, but the head nurse recognizes him as a child and bellows, "Get that kid out of here now! No children are allowed! "The mother rises up strong in Karen, and the usual mild-mannered lady glares steel-eyed into the head nurse's face, her lips a firm line. "He is not leaving until he sings to his sister!" Karen tows Michael to his sister's bedside. He gazes at the tiny infant who is losing the battle to live. And he begins to sing. In the pure-hearted voice of a three-year-old, Michael sings: "You are my sunshine, my only sunshine, you make me happy when skies are gray..." Instantly the baby girl responds. The pulse rate becomes calm and steady. "Keep on singing, Michael" "You never know, dear, how much I love you. Please don't take my sunshine away." The ragged, strained breathing becomes as smooth as a kitten's purr. "Keep on singing, Michael." "The other night, dear, as I lay sleeping, I dreamed I held you in my arms..." Michael's little sister relaxes as rest, healing rest, seems to sweep over her. "Keep on singing, Michael." Tears conquer the face of the bossy head nurse. Karen glows. "You are my sunshine, my only sunshine. Please don't take my sunshine away." Funeral plans are scrapped. The next day, the very next day, the little girl is well enough to go home! Woman's Day magazine called it "the miracle of a brother's song." The medical staff just called it a miracle. Karen called it a miracle of God's love!
